NEW CABIN AT KIDDIE KEEP WELL CAMP
JULY 8, 2019
9 AM – 12 NOON
ROOSEVELT PARK, EDISON

Kiddie Keep Well Camp provides a residential camping experience to the underserved children and senior citizens in Middlesex County, New Jersey. Located in Roosevelt Park, the camp hosts more than 600 campers each year at no charge. Campers receive medical and dental exams, proper nutrition and dental hygiene education, and enjoy indoor and outdoor activities under qualified supervision.

The constant turnaround of campers at Kiddie Keep Well Camp creates a need for updated infrastructure, provided by the spacious new cabin to allow for additional campers. Kiddie Keep Well Camp is giving back to the Middlesex County community, and now so is the construction industry.

We invite the media to join us for the camp community celebration, open to the public from 9 am to 12 pm at the Kiddie Keep Well Camp in Edison!

Do live shots and take photos...talk to camp staff and craftworkers.
